

DESCRIPTIONS

Historic Downtown Branson: Downtown Branson is a destination of its own, encompassing the Historic Downtown district, Branson Landing, and the surrounding areas. Downtown is home to a variety of restaurants, retail shops, entertainment, outdoor activities, and unique attractions. And it's easy to get around by walking or riding the free Downtown Trolley.

Dick's 5 & 10 in historic downtown Branson is one of the last of an American Tradition and a Branson icon for over 50 years. Those who remember the old-time 5&10 stores will enjoy Dick's 5&10. And new memories will be made for those who have no idea what a 5&10 was. Upon entering you will be amazed by the sheer volume of what you see – the trains running overhead, the incredible selection of nostalgic and novelty candy and the vastness of the assortment of merchandise. You can find almost anything you need like gifts, souvenirs, toys, games, hard-to-find old-time candy, house wares, toiletries, paper dolls, linens, dry goods, sewing notions, yarn, greeting cards, crafts and the list goes on.

The Showboat Branson Dinner Cruise: Located in Branson, Missouri, has three unique experiences in one unforgettable 2-hour cruise. During your journey aboard this majestic 1890s-style paddle wheeler, you'll cruise the beautiful waters of Branson's Table Rock Lake and see surrounding Ozarks scenery. You'll savor a delicious three-course meal prepared fresh for you in the ship's galley. Set sail for adventure on the open waters of Table Rock Lake with live music, dancing, comedy, magic, a meal and more! Join the Showboat's master of ceremonies as he presents the newest sensation in live stage performance. Enjoy the power of music from the 60s to today performed by a talented troupe of singers alongside our featured 4-piece band. Relive great soundtrack movie moments for a throwback journey to the days of Risky Business, Titanic, and Ghostbusters. Plus, witness the must-see spectacle of rhythm and footwork from the toe-tapping Showboat Dancers. The menu is: Lettuce & Shredded Carrot Salad served with Vidalia Onion dressing, Sweet Roll, Caribbean Chicken, Pot Roast in Gravy, Green Beans, Garlic Mashed Potatoes, Silver Dollar City's Lemon Berry Ice Cream Pie, Iced Tea & Coffee.

Hollywood Wax Museum: You can get close to some of the most famous people in show business and step right into the spotlight with icons of the silver screen at the Hollywood Wax Museum. Yep, they don't mind if you swoon or take loads of selfies! And you'll want to ham it up for fun photos using the handy props. You'll get to be a star amongst the stars while walking the red carpet, whooping it up in the Old West Saloon, and even singing in the spotlight. Your pics will be the envy of your friends!

Shepherd of the Hills Homestead Tour: You'll see the location of Harold Bell Wright's immortal novel – The Shepherd of the Hills – published in 1907. You'll tour the Shepherd of the Hills homestead on a jeep-drawn tram. You'll visit Old Matt's Cabin, the original home of the book's main characters. The modest log cabin stands in its original location and is on the National Historic Registry. You'll go onto the actual set of the show for a backstage peek at the production.

Shepherd of the Hills Inspiration Tower: Inspiration Tower a 230' tall structure located on Inspiration Point in The Shepherd of the Hills Homestead. Constructed and erected in 1989, the Tower's opening celebrated the 100th anniversary of Harold Bell Wright's first visit to the area. It weighs 3 million pounds, cost approximately $1.5 million to build, contains over 92,000 pounds of structural steel, and can withstand a constant wind of 172 mph or gusts of up to 224 mph! Two glass elevators transport visitors to the spacious, enclosed observation deck. The panoramic views are phenomenal, in any season. On a clear day, you can see over 90 miles.
